TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

JAISALMER: Visit the Jaisalmer Fort, havelis (traditional Indian mansions), Godi Sagar Lake, local markets and enjoy a desert safari.

Visits to all monuments visits & other visits are subject to MHA & state government guidelines at time of travel

TOUR OVERVIEW

In the heart of Rajasthan's Thar Desert, the golden city of Jaisalmer is home to elegant old mansions, beautiful sand dunes stretching far into the horizon, a fairy-tale fort and myriad other endearing charms. With two days to spend in this magnificent town, you'll be able to take in Jaisalmer's unforgettable sights, sounds, scents and tastes at a relaxed pace.

DAY BY DAY

DAY 01: ARRIVE JAISALMER (BY FLIGHT)

You will be met by a representative on arrival at the airport and assisted with your transfer to your hotel.

Spend the evening in leisure.
Overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 02: JAISALMER

After breakfast, your sightseeing starts and the first destination is the legendary Jaisalmer Fort.

Built in 1156 by the Bhati Rajput ruler, the fort has been the scene of many battles. This classic desert fort, a World Heritage Site, is built of golden coloured sandstone, which looks tawny during the day, the colour subtly changing to an almost honey gold at sunset. Standing at a height of 100 meters over the city, this living fort is home to almost a quarter of the city's population, who live within the walls of the fort.

Next, make your way through the narrow lanes towards the havelis.

The havelis of Jaisalmer are exceptional. Similar in style to the homes of Venetian merchants, they were wealthy traders, who grew rich on the flourishing trade of the era. Their houses have beautifully carved facades, jali (lattice) screens and oriole windows. Each haveli has an inner courtyard, surrounded by richly decorated living quarters.

Of these, the Patwon Ki Haveli is exceptionally captivating. After all, it's the most elaborate and the largest of Jaisalmer's havelis. In fact, the haveli's construction took as long as 50 years. We also recommend a stop at Nathmal ji ki Haveli, which is one of the last of the great havelis to be built in the late 19th century.

While visiting the havelis, you will pass small silversmith establishments, stalls selling goods made from local products and colourful shawls and blankets. Equally artistic are the homes of the ordinary folks. The flat-roofed white houses with bands of ochre and brown are decorated with folk art on the walls and geometric patterns on the floor.

Lastly, drive to Gadi Sagar Lake. During spells of drought, this lake proved to be the mainstay of the town and has many interesting stories and legends associated with it.

This evening, you will enjoy an exclusive dinner in the desert against the backdrop of the mesmerising sand dunes.

Open jeeps will ferry you to the desert and you will enjoy a cocktail, while watching a spectacular desert sunset.

Return to your hotel after sunset.
Overnight at hotel (B,D)

DAY 03: JAISALMER DEPARTURE (FLIGHT)

The tour comes to an end today.

After breakfast, check out and drive to the airport for the next leg of your onwards journey.

DAY 02: KHAJURAHO

Start your visit with the Kandariya Mahadev temple, the most popular and beautiful massive structure here. It is a magnificent piece of artistic sculptural work decorated with over 870 statues and carvings.

Stroll through other temples, including the Chausath Yogini Temple. Unlike other Chausath Yogini temples elsewhere, this one is rectangular in shape and not rounded. The temple dates back to the late 9th century and is said to be Khajuraho's oldest surviving temple.

In the afternoon, explore the local handicrafts of the town. In this small town, tourism accounts for the main source of earnings for its local people. Notice how nearly every household is engaged in some kind of commercial activity. Houses are converted into budget hotels, shops and restaurants.

Varanasi Extension

📅 02 NIGHTS / 03 DAYS 📍 VARANASI

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

VARANASI: Visit temples, ghats (embankments by the Ganges) and witness the Aarti ceremony. Also, enjoy boating and visit Sarnath.

Visits to all monuments visits & other visits are subject to MHA & state government guidelines at time of travel

TOUR OVERVIEW

The ancient holy city of Varanasi, picturesquely situated on the crescent shaped left banks of the Ganges, is one of the oldest seats of spiritual learning in India, and the city's name is said to be a compound of the names of two streams, the Varuna and the Assi, which still flow in the north and south of the city. Since times immemorial, it has been a great one of the most sacred pilgrim destinations.

DAY BY DAY

DAY 01: ARRIVE VARANASI (BY FLIGHT)

On arrival at Varanasi airport, you will be met by our representative, who will also help you with the transfer to your hotel.

Varanasi is the spiritual heart of India and one of the oldest living cities in the world with a history going back 2,500 years. The true name for Varanasi is 'Kashi', which is derived from a Sanskrit word meaning 'to shine and look brilliant' and Kashi (today, the old city area) is believed to be the home of the most powerful of the Triumvirate Indian deity, Lord Shiva.

This evening, drive to the old city and explore the narrow streets on foot, after parking the vehicle. You will also see the ghats (embankments by the Ganges) and enjoy a cycle rickshaw ride.

At the ghats, join the throng of devotees to witness the mesmerising evening aarti ceremony. The rituals are largely performed by Hindu priests – they are well-versed with the Vedas and Upanishads. Donned in traditional attire, they chant mantras and carry out various fascinating rituals. Return to your hotel after the aarti ceremony. Overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 02: IN VARANASI

Wake up early in the morning to visit the ghats on time – a magnificent sunrise awaits you. Also, there will be a memorable boating tour on the Ganges, and you will witness the incredible sight of huge crowds of devotees performing religious rituals, making sun salutations and other memorable acts.

Return to your hotel for breakfast.

Later, this morning, enjoy a sightseeing tour of Varanasi.

Start by visiting some of the important temples such as Bharat Mata Mandir, a unique temple inaugurated by Mahatma Gandhi, which interestingly houses one of the most perfect relief maps of India and is dedicated to Mother India. Another famous one is the Durga Temple, dedicated to Goddess Durga.

In the afternoon, proceed for a guided excursion to SARNATH – where Lord Buddha preached his first sermon.

A major Buddhist centre, Sarnath lies 10 kilometres north east of Varanasi. It was here that Buddha preached his message of the 'middle way' to nirvana after achieving enlightenment at Bodh Gaya. In around 234 BC, Emperor Ashoka, a great follower of Buddhism, erected a stupa here. Between the 3rd century BC and the 11th century AD, several Buddhist structures were built here. Most of the Sarnath's monuments are set in large picturesque gardens.

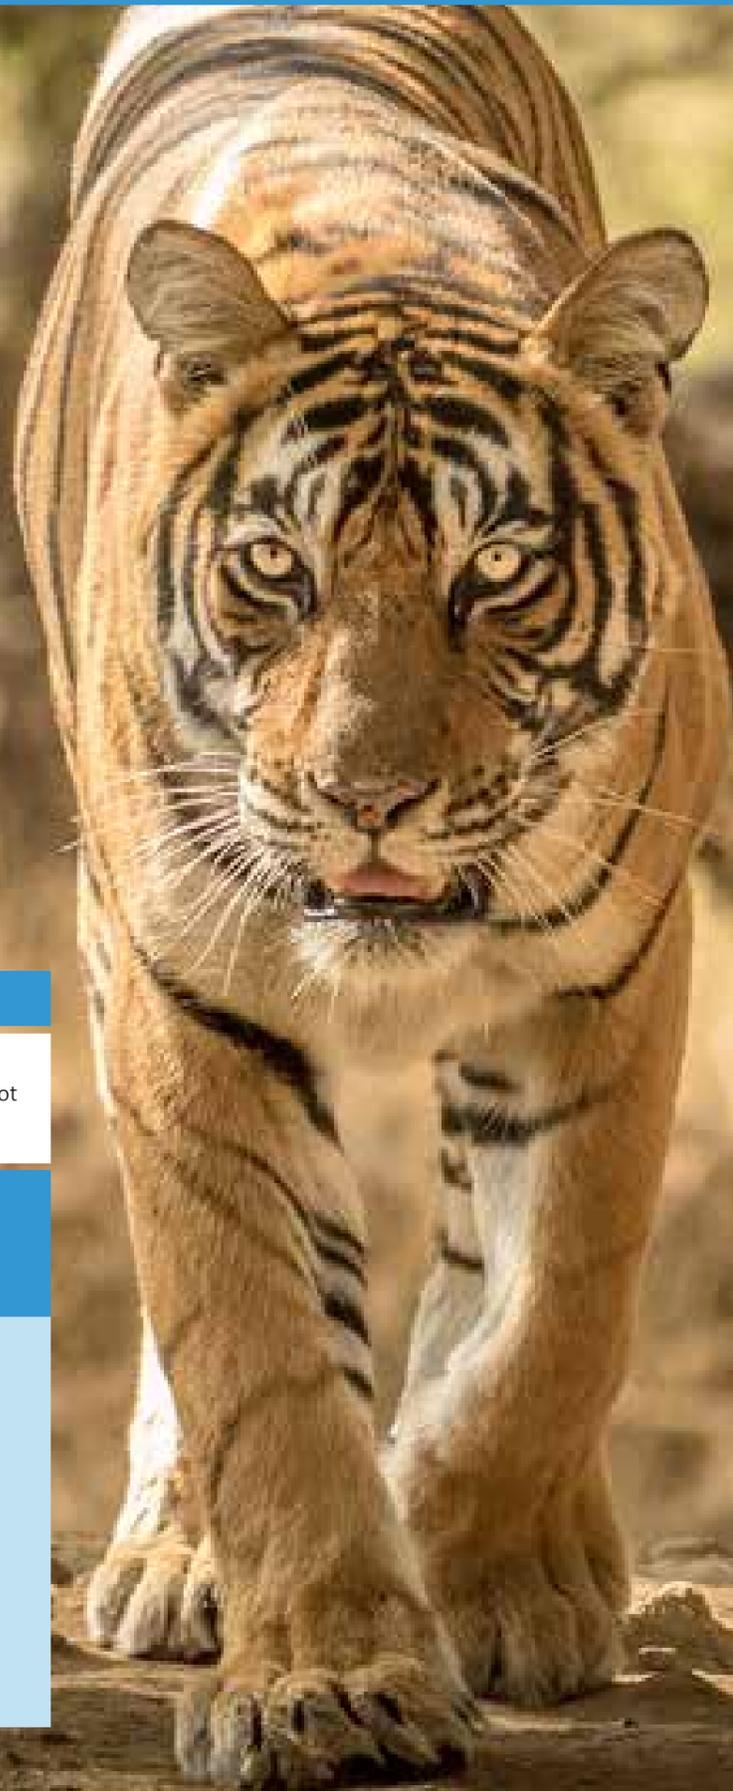

After your tour of Sarnath, return to the city and spend the evening at leisure. Overnight stay at the hotel (B)

DAY 03: DEPARTURE

Your tour comes to an end this morning. We will arrange your drop to Varanasi airport, for your onwards flight. (B)

DAY 01: ARRIVE AMRITSAR

Meeting and assistance on arrival and transfer to hotel in Amritsar.

Amritsar was founded by Guru Ram Das, fourth Guru of the Sikh religion. He settled down next to a pool, said to have miraculous healing powers. His son, Guru Arjun Dev, built the temple within the pool, and later Maharaja Ranjit Singh covered it with pure gold leaf.

Late afternoon, visit the border town the Wagah Border which is one of the points of the Indo-Pak border and every evening the ‘lowering of the flags’ or the ‘Beating Retreat’ ceremony attracts many onlookers. The iron gates are opened and border guards of both the countries lower their respective flags amidst much pomp and show. The atmosphere gets electrified as they try to outdo each other in the drill. After the ceremony return to the hotel. Overnight stay at the hotel.

DAY 02: AMRITSAR

After breakfast, proceed to visit the Golden Temple- the sacred Sikh sanctuary spread out in a vast complex around a huge water tank, in the midst of which stands the marble sanctum where the holy book of the Sikhs, the Guru Granth, is reverently placed. The roof of the sanctum is gold-leafed. The community kitchen provides free meals to up to 10,000 pilgrims and visitors in a day. On the way to the temple, you walk by the busy bazaars of the city and explore the local market.

Also visit the Jallianwala Bagh. It’s a memorial park and symbolizes one of the most tragic moments in India’s freedom movement.

Later visit Durgiana temple dedicated to Goddess Durga. This is a Hindu Temple and has lots of similarities with the Golden Temple.

Late evening, proceed to attend ‘Palki sahib ceremony’ (night ceremony) which happens twice a day. The ceremony involves carrying the holy book Guru Granth Sahib to the Sanctum Santorum early in the morning and carrying it back at night. It is a symbolic gesture, conducted with utmost devotion and a visual delight. Some particular hymns are read by the respected priest, and finally the book is closed and placed in a golden Palanquin which is carried by all the devotees who lined up to give offerings. It all happens amidst much chanting and reciting of hymns.

Overnight stay at the hotel (B)

It is a spectacle of sound and colour with the pealing of temple bells and blowing of conch shells. The ritual starts at dusk with the priests lighting lamps and reaches a crescendo, lasting nearly half an hour. Hymns and mantras echo across the banks of the Ganges. Devotees chant along with the clash of cymbals and chiming bells. The reflection of golden hues of floating candles 'Diyas' in the river Ganga is an incredible sight. This is one of the most magical moments in India, a time when one is in communion with both God and nature.
