

MEDIA RELEASE

PASH INDIA wins 4th Annual World Golf Awards 2017 at Spain

Spain, November, 2017:

Pash India, the golf arm of Le Passage to India, has been awarded with 'India's Best Inbound Golf Tour Operator 2017' award at the 4th annual World Golf Awards 2017. This makes Pash India a winner for three consecutive years. A glittering event was held on the occasion at the La Manga Club, Spain.

A win in this category is Golf tourism's highest accolade and a recognition of Pash India's commitment to excellence and determination to become the undisputed market leader. It's a privilege to be recognised among the international leaders in golf hospitality.

The formal announcement and presentations were made on Saturday, 25 November, 2017 at the 4th annual World Golf Awards Gala Ceremony, Spain.

World Golf Awards is part of the prestigious World Travel Awards and throughout the year a record number of votes were cast for the 4th Annual World Golf Awards 2017 by leading golf tourism professionals worldwide as well as hundreds of thousands of golf consumers in more than 100 countries.

World Golf Awards celebrates and rewards excellence in golf tourism, spanning parameters as diverse as world class courses and golf destinations.

About Pash India

Pash India originated as an arm of the Destination Management Company Le Passage to India with an objective to provide memorable golf experiences across India. With a dedicated network of specialized travel planners, Pash India has all the expertise to custom design a fantastic golf holiday. Pash India was born in 2003 when a group of young golf enthusiasts promised themselves to create amazing golf experiences for lovers of this game.

For further information, please contact:
corporate@lepassagetointia.com
T: +91 120 3823563